Change the Lord's Prayer?

Recently Pope Francis announced a change regarding the English translation of part of the Lord's Prayer. Instead of praying, "and lead us not into temptation" to "do not let us fall into temptation." This change will only apply to Roman Catholics.

However, it does raise a point as to whether or not we fully understand what it is we are praying for when we use the old King James English version of the Lord's Prayer.

Next Sunday, August 11, we will have our 2nd lesson on the Lord's Prayer following the morning worship service.

I invite you to join in the study!

“The land of a rich man produced plentifully, ” and he thought to himself, ‘What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’”(Luke 13:17).

Invocation

P In the name of the Father and of the (+) Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Dear friends in Christ, let us confess our sins together and hear God's words of forgiveness and acceptance.

C Holy God, we confess that we have sinned in Your sight. Despite our best efforts and intentions, we have failed to consistently live in ways that bring honor to Your name. Forgive us. Through the grace of Jesus Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, set us free from the grip of sin—from attitudes and actions that do not lead to life. (based upon Romans 7:14-27).

P Once we were slaves to sin, living lives that led only to death. But thanks be to God! In His mercy, He has set us free from the power of sin and death, and has offered us forgiveness and eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord! As a called servant of our Lord Jesus Christ, I now announce to you that you have been set free from sin. Use your new life in Christ to bring honor and glory to God!
(based on Romans 6:16-17; 22-23)

C Thanks be to God!

Sermon

Hymn of the Day

Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken

Jesus, I my cross have taken, all to leave and follow you.
Destitute, despised forsaken, You on earth once suffered, too.
Perish ev'ry fond ambition, All I've ever hoped or known;
Yet how rich is my condition! God and heav'n are still my own.

Go, then, earthly fame and treasure! Come, disaster; scorn, and pain!
In your service pain is pleasure; with your favor loss is gain.
I have called you Abba, Father! You my all in all shall be.
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather; all must work for good to me!
